TABLE OF CONTENTS

Justice Gopalji Mehrotra

Justice Gopalji Mehrotra was the son of Smt. & Sri Radhe Mohan Mehrotra. He was born in 1904.

He was very patriotic from an early age and was actively involved in the freedom struggle of the country and served his time in prison on two occasions. He practiced law at Allahabad High Court and became a judge of the same Court in May 1954 and served there until October 1957. He was transferred to Assam in November 1957 and served as a Judge of the Gauhati High Court until June 1961, when he was appointed as the Chief Justice. He served as the Chief Justice of Assam & Nagaland until February 1967.

Justice Gopalji Mehrotra left for his heavenly abode suddenly due to a heart condition on 10th September 1969.

Saraswat Khatri Pathshala Society

Saraswat Khatri Pathshala, established in 1921 by Shri Lala Sadan Lal Khanna, has grown from a humble primary school to a renowned educational institution, providing quality education to thousands of students. Its journey, marked by philanthropy and dedicated efforts, reflects a commitment to spreading knowledge and transforming lives. Saraswat Khatri Pathshala celebrating its 70 years, stands as a beacon of education, illuminating countless families and nurturing students who excel in diverse fields. The institution remains profoundly grateful to the benevolent souls whose contributions have made dreams a reality. Every corner of Saraswat Khatri Pathshala, from its classrooms to its laboratories, libraries, scholarships, incentives, and even its plants, bears the memory of its generous donors.

S. S. Khanna Girls' Degree College, Prayagraj

The vision of uplifting the education of girls among all sections of the society and the need of empowerment of women led Late S.N. Kakkar and Late. Prof. D.D. Khanna to lay the foundation of S.S. Khanna Girls' Degree College, a Constituent College of the Central University of Allahabad in the International Year for Women. The college was established in 1975 as a girls' college and has grown from a single faculty to a composite institution. It has 05 faculties at UG level namely Bachelor of Arts (B.A.), Bachelor of Science (B.Sc.), Bachelor of Commerce (B.Com.), Bachelor of Education (B.Ed.) and B.A.LL.B. (Hons.) Five Year Integrated Law Course. It offers postgraduate courses in Arts and Science stream that is M.A., M.Sc. as well as research, i.e., Ph.D. The college has been graded by National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) at 'A' grade in last two cycles of five years each, i.e., for 2014-19 and 2020-25 for sustaining high standards in teaching and continuous efforts in promoting girl education.

S.S. Khanna Girls' Degree College has been working relentlessly close to five decades to cater the needs of girl students belonging to diverse socio-economic backgrounds, with the objective of cultivating moral, intellectual, spiritual, social, and emotional values in them. With the firm conviction that education is vital to women's equality and empowerment, the college is committed to help the society by imparting comprehensive and quality education and all the future prospects are aimed to achieve the noble vision of its founders.

Saroj Lalji Mehrotra Centre of Legal Studies

Saroj Lalji Mehrotra Centre of Legal Studies established at S.S. Khanna Girls' Degree College for B.A.LL.B.(Hons.) Five Year Integrated Degree Course in Law stands as a beacon in the legal education landscape. In a world where the ever-changing legal realm is a complex puzzle, the Centre provides a platform for young women to understand, interpret and contribute to this intricate system. The Centre recognizes the crucial importance of awareness of legal rights and remedies, believing that knowledge and understanding can enable better enforcement of rights.

A cornerstone of its philosophy is the assertion that the participation of females in the legal field is not just a desirable outcome, but an absolute imperative. This stand is not just about equity or representation, but about the fundamental belief that diversity of perspective is integral to the just and effective functioning of any system.

In an era when the global community is facing a plethora of challenges from varying sectors, the legal profession is destined to expand and evolve. Saroj Lalji Mehrotra Centre of Legal Studies understands this well and thus strives to prepare its students not just for the immediate future, but for a legal landscape that is yet to take shape. It endeavours to make its students not just recipients of legal knowledge but shapers of the legal discourse. Through rigorous academic training, practical exposures like moot courts, internships and workshops, the institution ensures that its students have the tools to excel and contribute meaningfully to the profession.

In essence, it is a centre of empowerment, an incubator for future leaders of the legal profession. It embodies the vision of a more just, equitable world and is doing its part to bring that vision to fruition by empowering women with the knowledge, skills, and confidence to shape the future of the legal profession.

SCC Online Times is a feature of SCC Online®, providing timely updates, legal news, and analysis to keep legal professionals and enthusiasts informed about the latest developments in the legal world. It serves as a dynamic platform offering insights into recent judgments, legislative changes, and noteworthy legal events.

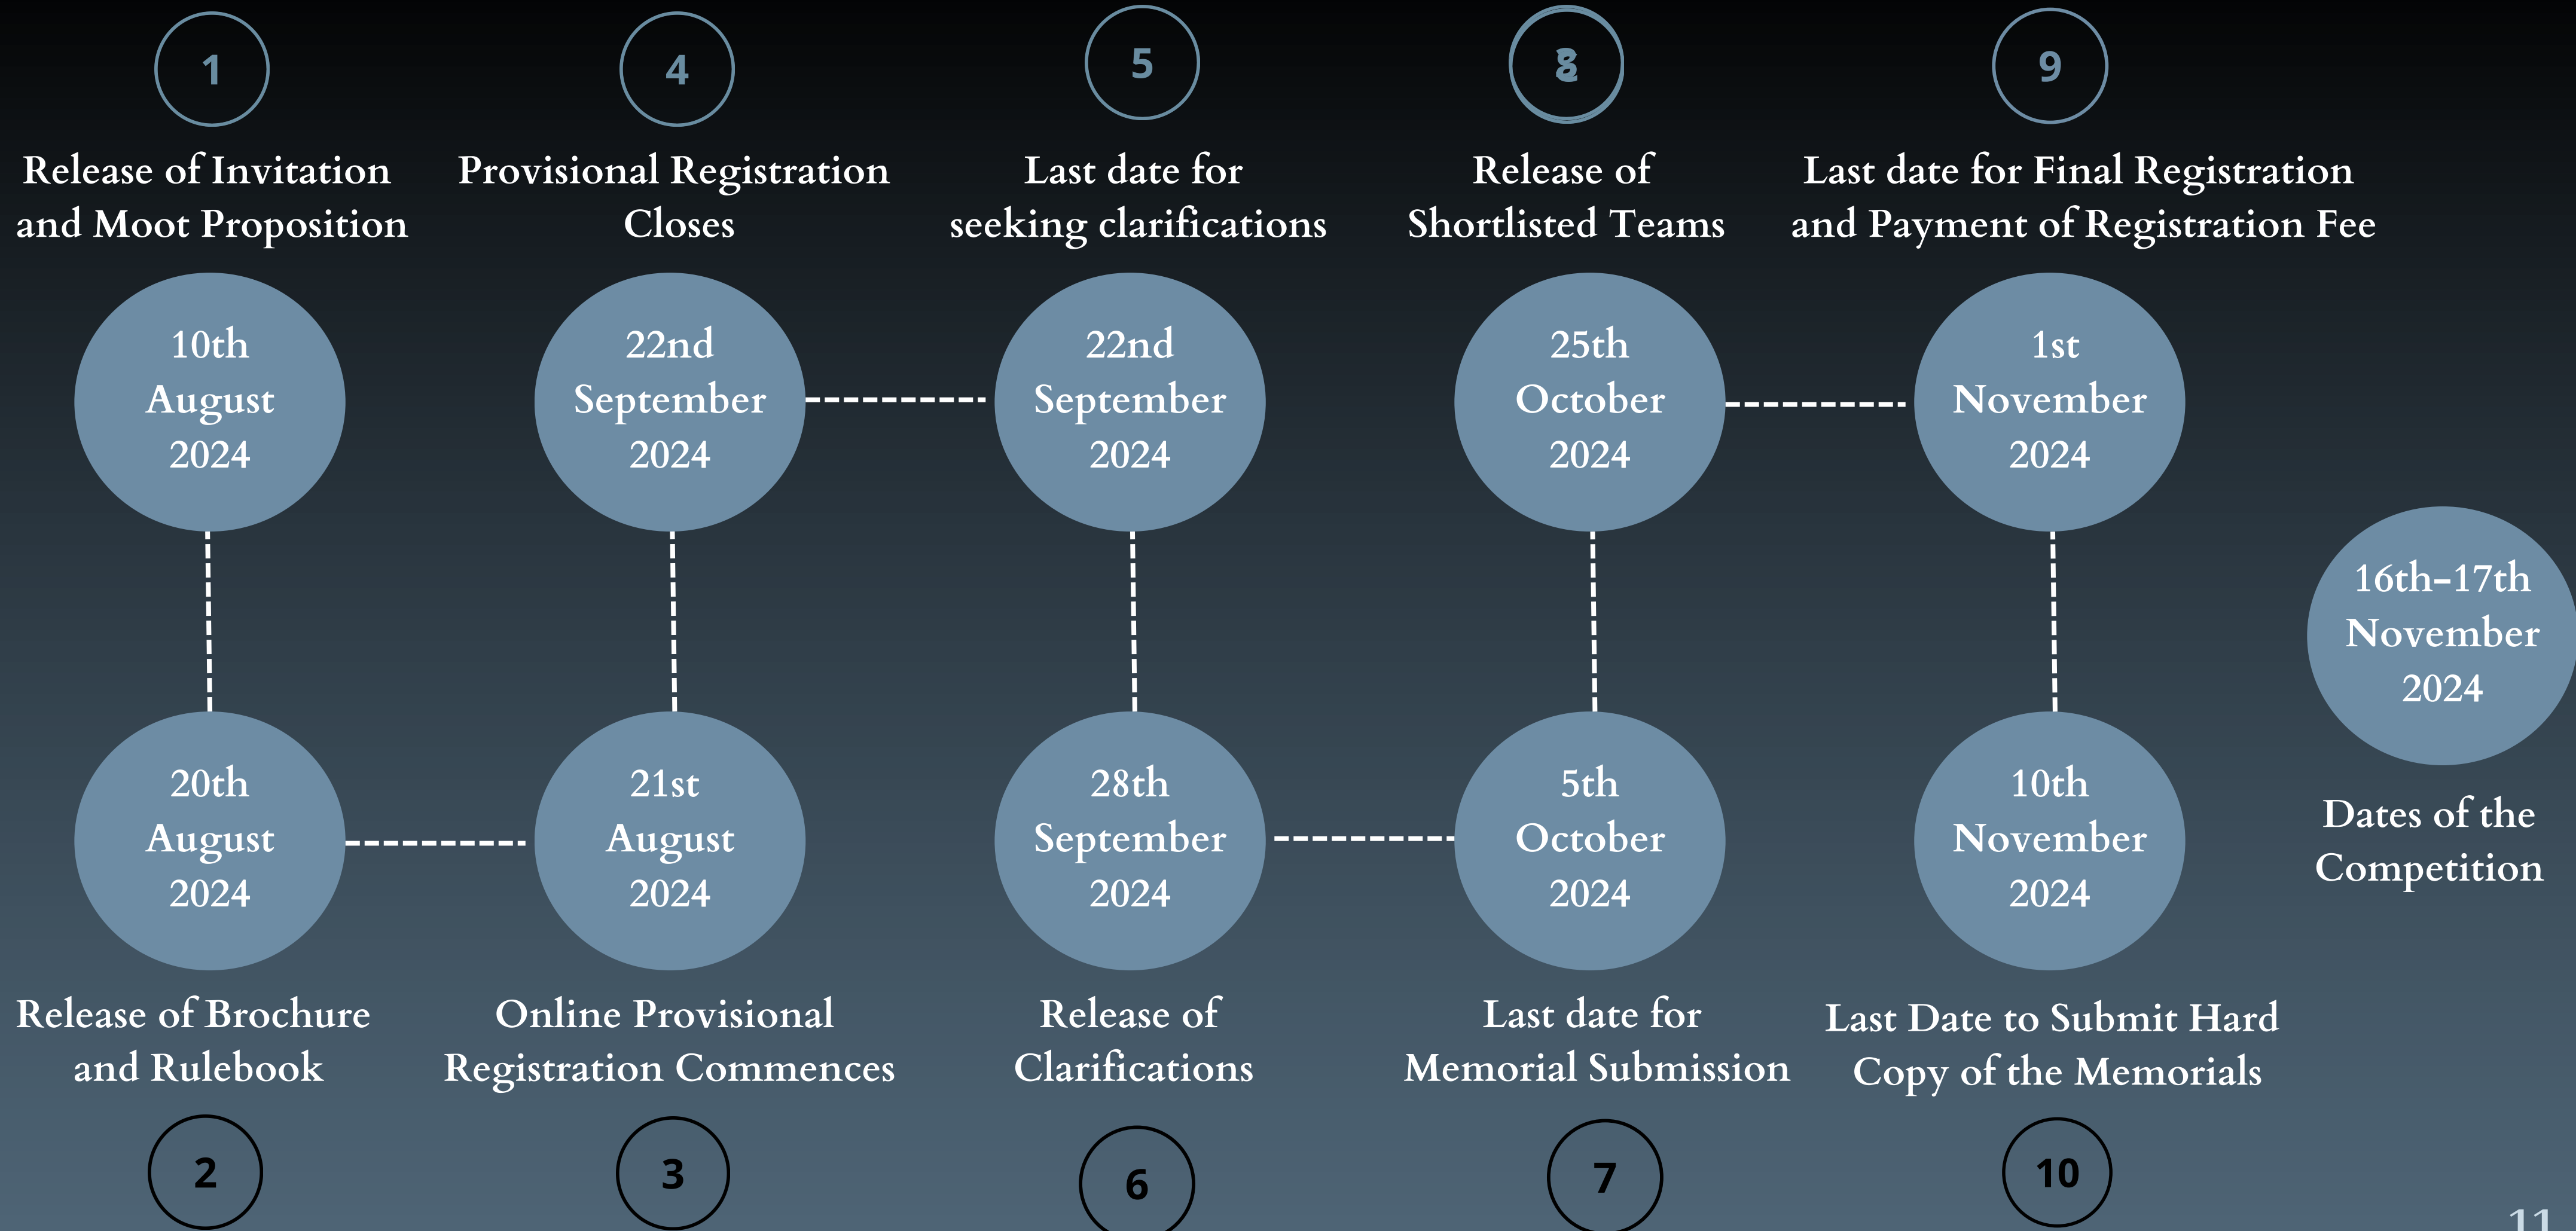

SAR-LA EDUCATION TRUST, MUMBAI

Set up in 1982, Sar-La Education Trust is the dream of a philanthropic couple, Smt. Saroj and Shri Lalji Mehrotra. Amongst many of their humanitarian activities, they aspired to reach out to remote locations in India and promote girl child education. The Trust now operating close to four decades, in the hands of third generation, is carrying forward the legacy of its founders. It is making educational opportunities accessible to young girls in small towns and promoting and supporting pursuits towards holistic education that bridges “the entire gamut of educational spectrum” i.e., formal education, vocational-technical education and skill development, focused on employability.

The Centre of Legal Studies owes its existence to Sar-La Education Trust, Mumbai which generously provided financial assistance of rupees 50 lacs towards capex. A relay of thanks to the Executive Trustee Sri Chetan Mehrotra and other Trustees of Sar-La Education Trust, Mumbai for their valuable financial and moral support to the institution's pursuit of achieving the goal of providing standard legal education.

Sar-La Education Trust has also graciously sponsors the prize money for the winners and the runners up teams for the Competition, every year.
